

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

-----
DOMINIC ALLEN KING,

Plaintiff,

v.

TAMMY MAASEN, NURSE P. HULSTEIN and KRISTINE PRALLE,

Defendants.
-----

ORDER

19-cv-382-bbc

In an order entered on July 7, 2019, I granted pro se plaintiff Dominic King leave to proceed on Eighth Amendment claims that defendants Tammy Maasen, P. Hulstein and Kristine Pralle failed to take reasonable measures to treat his hemorrhoids. Dkt. #6. I stayed a decision on plaintiff's request to proceed on state law negligence claims against defendants because plaintiff had not stated whether he satisfied Wisconsin's notice of claim statute, Wis. Stat. § 893.82. Plaintiff has responded, stating that he submitted a notice of claim to the attorney general before filing this lawsuit. Dkt. #7. Based on plaintiff's response, I conclude that plaintiff may proceed with negligence claims against defendants based on the same allegations that support his Eighth Amendment claims.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the screening order in this case, dkt. #6, is AMENDED to state that plaintiff Dominic King is GRANTED leave to proceed on state law negligence claims that defendants Tammy Maasen, P. Hulstein and Kristine Pralle failed to provide adequate treatment for his hemorrhoids.

Entered this 8th day of August, 2019.
